S.M. Samuel
PRINCIPAL
GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

Spanning our four years at Villa is a rainbow of dreams, hopes, and opportunities. To help us realize our academic goals and our youthful aspirations, S.M. Samuel and S.M. Aileen devote their fullest energy to organizing and directing a program of studies and activities and to implementing the principles of sound character building. We know that, through the years, memory will only deepen our appreciation of their concern for our success as students now and as responsible Christian women of the future.

S.M. Aileen
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Rev. Evarist Nowak, OFM Conv.
CHAPLAIN, INSTRUCTOR IN RELIGION

It is our dream of dreams to attain happiness with God in eternity. Our guide in this quest for perfect fulfillment in Christ is Father Evarist who joined the faculty as Chaplain of Villa Maria, spiritual counselor and instructor in religion. Committed to the Christian way of life, as it is pointed out to us by God's minister, we can proceed, secure and confident that we shall reach our glorious, transcendent destiny at the end of life's rainbow.

S.M. Anne
SECRETARY

S.M. Sapientia
BUSINESS MANAGER

IN GRATEFUL REMEMBRANCE

In one brief year of her service on the faculty of Villa Maria as chorus and Glee Club director, S.M. Janicia endeared herself to all of us. Through her quiet efficiency and gracious way, she shared with us her love for the beautiful in song and music. Now that God has called her away to another world, of perfect peace and harmony, we bring to her memory our tribute of loving and prayerful remembrance.

*Dear Anne
May your future life be filled with promise and rainbows - I wish you God's best in whatever way you choose
Peace! - Synetelle*

Seniors

Every senior needs a rainbow:
Life without a dream is hollow —
A dream can be an inspiration
With a shining goal to follow.

KAREN M. WALISZEWSKI
CLASS PRESIDENT

My friends, you are very special to me.
You gave me your smiles and your "hi's"
and I, in return, gave you mine.

DONNA MARIE KOSTRZYCKI
STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

As we roll along life's highway, it is those who love us and those who refuse to love us who pave our way.

PAULA M. LASKOWSKI
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY
PRESIDENT

The two most precious things I possess are the memories I have, and the memories I've yet to have.

SANDRA MARIE SZUDZIK
CLASS VICE PRESIDENT

My life can be compared to a book with yet so many unwritten pages.

SANDRA M. DUDZIAK
CLASS SECRETARY

Spread sunshine and happiness to those around you . . . SMILE.

PAULA A. WALSH
CLASS TREASURER

I don't want merely to exist in this world. I want to LIVE!

LENORE L. ANDERSON

If I were never sad, I would never know what it is to be truly happy.

CATHERINE ANN BABULA

It is not how much we have in life, but how much we enjoy that makes for happiness.

LORRAINE M. BAJER

You just seem older than yesterday and you're waiting for tomorrow to call.

ANNE MARIE BALCARCZYK

Both in sunshine and in shade . . . we've been friends.

DIANE A. BALERA

Is love the base for a meaningful Friendship, or is Friendship the base for a lasting Love?

PATRICIA MARIE BOCHYNSKI

Our Friendship is like a flower: it has blossomed through sunshine and rain.

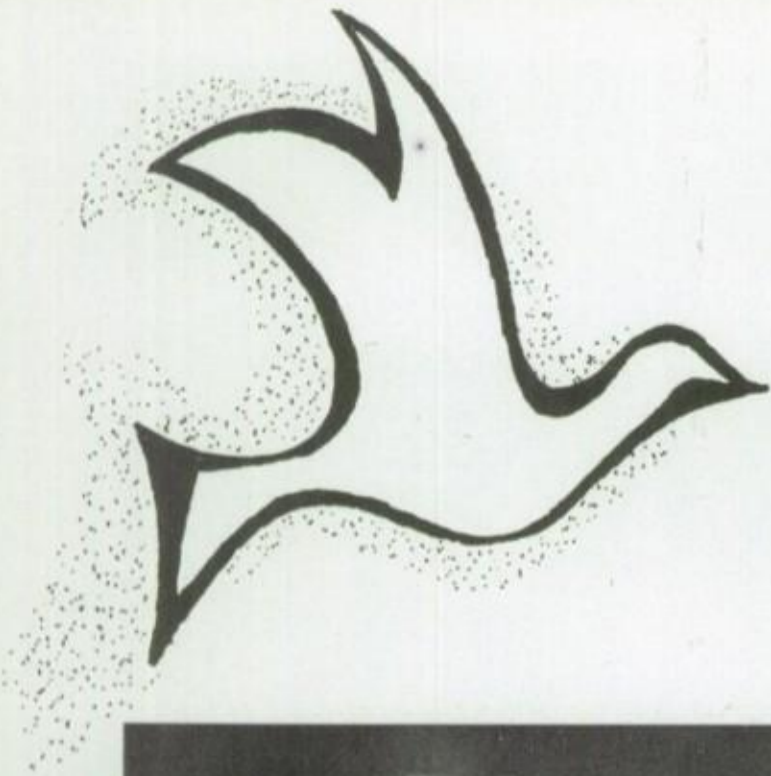

ANNETTE M. BONUS

I like to make people laugh when they feel down and troubled, and to help them when in need.

DENISE MARIE BORKOWSKI

The most wonderful gift one can give is love.

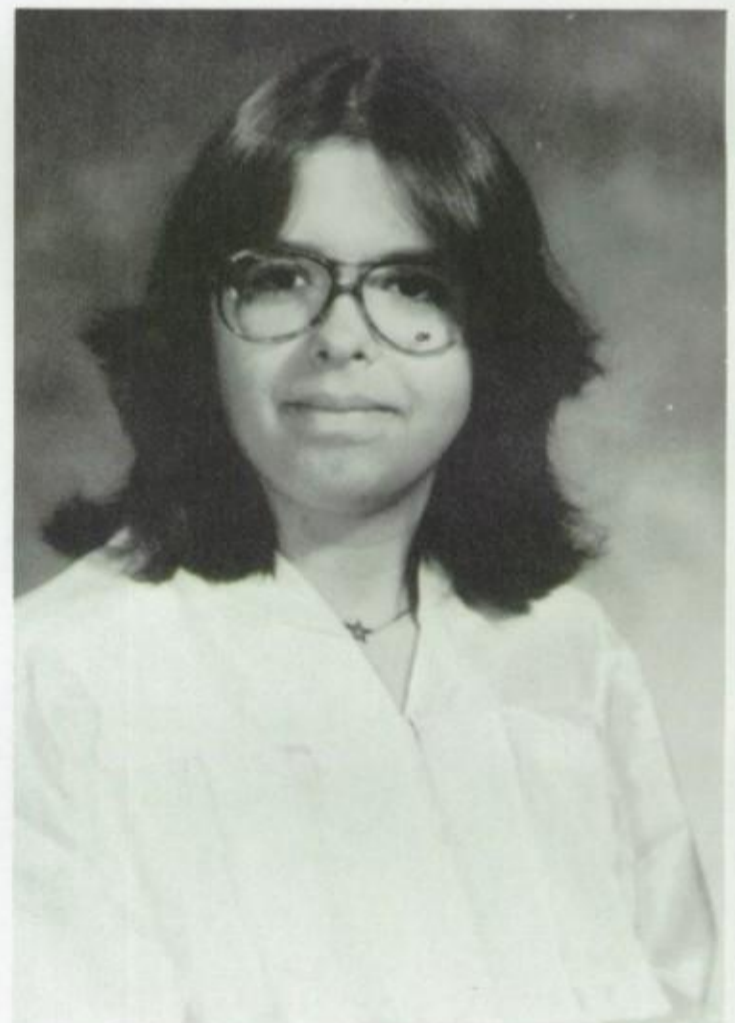

THERESA BRUDZ

Love is the star whose constant ray beams over us every special day.

GALE M. BRYSKI

In some ways I'm like everybody else ...
In others, I'm like nobody else.

KIMBERLY M. BRZYSKI

True love is the gift which God has given.

JULIANNE CHMIELEWSKI

Life without hope is like love without trust; one cannot survive without the other.

LINDA CIESLIKOWSKI

Friends are one of the greatest gains in life; I'm glad we're friends!

BERNADETTE CHROSTOWSKI

If I look at my friend and know that I can speak the truth, we have a real friendship.

KATHLEEN CZECH

Love makes it possible to believe in the impossible.

KATHERINE CZERNIAK

The dreams I have of you ... Show the softness of your smile ... Memories never lie.

ANN MARIE D'AMICO

Love me with all your heart and I will love you with all of mine.

SANDRA LYNN DECZ

Day after day we feel the love we show one another; think of the happiness it can bring.

DIANA U. DERHAK

He who does the absurd is capable of achieving the impossible.

ANNETTE DIETL

At some time in life we will meet up with a black cloud, but we must strive to get higher than it.

BETTINA SARAH DORNIG

Live as though you were to die tomorrow, and love and learn as though you were to live forever.

SUZETTE M. DOROBIALA

Time is a precious jewel, never to be wasted.

MARY ALICE DUDAS

The closeness of you has helped me live my life to the fullest.

SUSAN MARIE DUSZA

Whatever we strongly want and need will come to us. It is only a question of the force and consistency of our desire.

DEBRA ANN FILIPOWICZ

Life is but a series of good times and bad times, lived for a moment but captured in our memories for all time.

KATHY GALENSKI

I believe in you ... for when you touch the stars, they twinkle.

ELLEN GNIAZDOWSKI

Love can be lost and found again, but time can never be replaced.

TERESA GORNIK

Life is blah without love.

KIM GRUENTHANER

Pleasures in life are needed, but happiness in life is more satisfying.

GAIL MARIE HALBINA

The more I give to you the more I have.

ELIZABETH R. IACUZZO

To "live" is the rarest thing in the world. Some people just exist; but the world is hollow and I have touched the sky.

KAREN M. JABLONSKI

A journey of a thousand miles seems like a step when shared by friends.

PHYLLIS JANKOWSKI

You make me what I am; I am nothing without you.

MICHELLE MARIE JANORA

The greatest gifts given me are those in my memories. It is the love, laughter, joy, friendship and tears that I will never forget.

PATRICIA JARMUSZ

The best I can be is myself and everything else shall follow.

PATRICIA A. JARNOT

I found the love I thought I could never find; that is, the love of your friendship.

HELENE JASINSKI

Friendship: Time can't destroy its beauty as long as memories live; years can't erase the pleasure that the joy of friendship gives.

KATHLEEN KACPROWICZ

The memory of a smile is worth a thousand words.

MICHELLE KAMINSKI

Never hesitate to do something for fear of being hurt. Remember: if you have never felt pain, you cannot know what it is to be happy.

NORMA JEAN KERBER

Each day is a new beginning for me. My days are filled with joy and sadness; some days I may regret, but others I don't ever want to forget.

PATRICIA KESICK

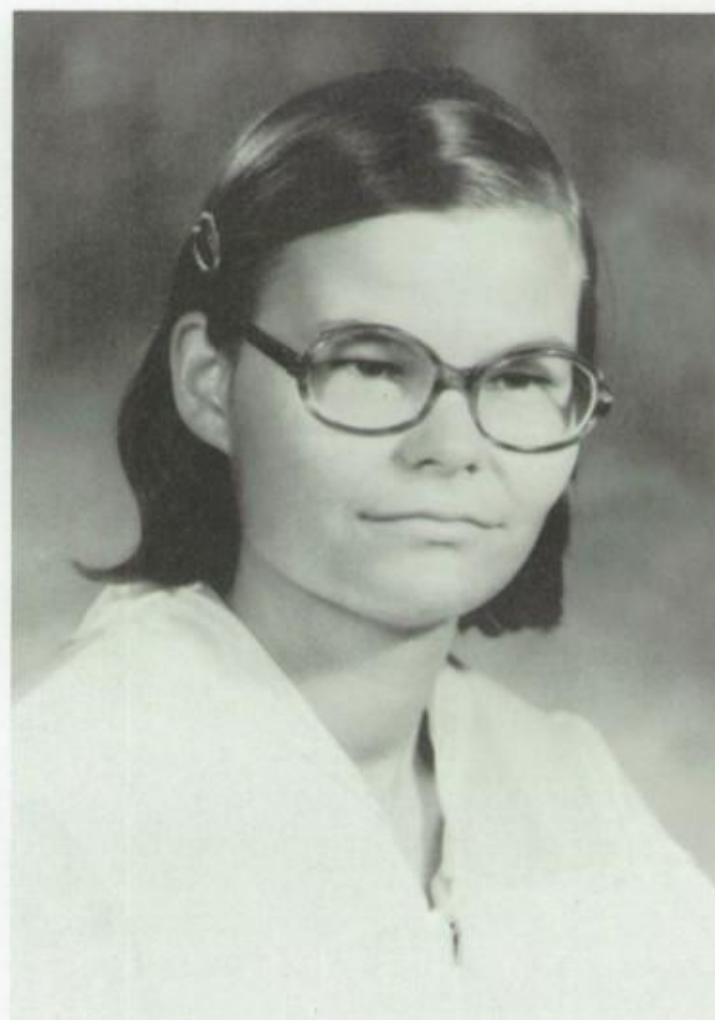

Love is like a tear rolling down the face ... It does not stop unless it is wiped away.

ANNA KATHERINE KLOS

Today when I awoke, I found I was still waiting for tomorrow.

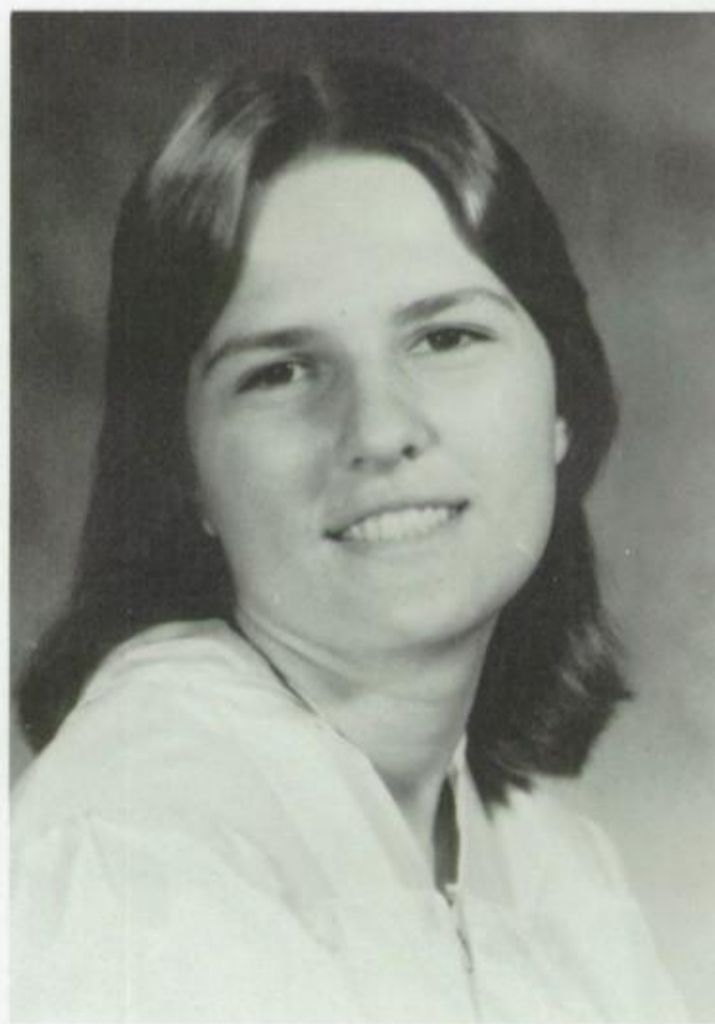

ELIZABETH ANN KRYWALSKI

Friends are meant for each other.

MARY LOUISE KRZEMIEN

To be needed and loved is a blessing everyone should wish for.

MARY KUREK

A bird does not sing because he has an answer ... He sings because he has a song.

COLEEN M. KURZDORFER

Beautiful things are seldom easy.

ELIZABETH KURZDORFER

What more to ask when nature is born around you; and all things growing, grow for you; and all things living, live for you.

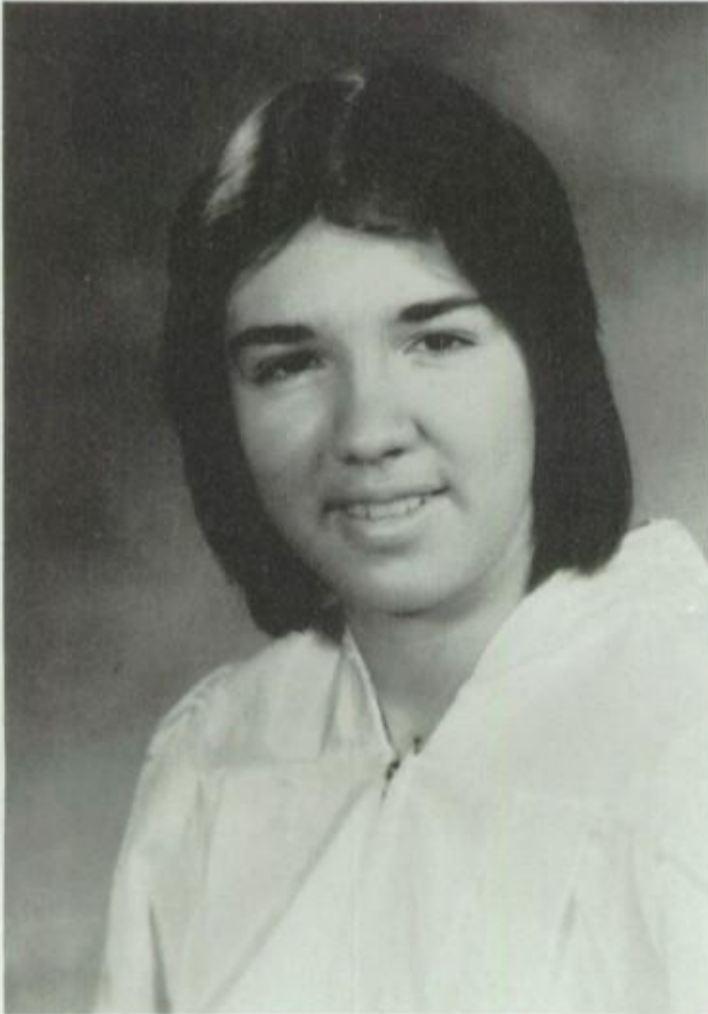

JANINE SUE LA BELLE

Even doing nothing at all is fun when you do it with friends.

JANICE MAJCHRZAK

Peace of mind and a loving friend are the real treasures of life.

LYNNE M. MANIAK

To love a friend and to have that love returned is the greatest gift life can give to anyone.

DIANE MARZEC

Success is to love my life and live my love because in doing so I find true happiness.

SUZANNE J. MARZEC

As the first rays of sunshine touch the the sky, I cannot help feeling within that Villa will never leave me.

DEBRA LEA MEINZER

Friends are the richest treasure one can ask of life.

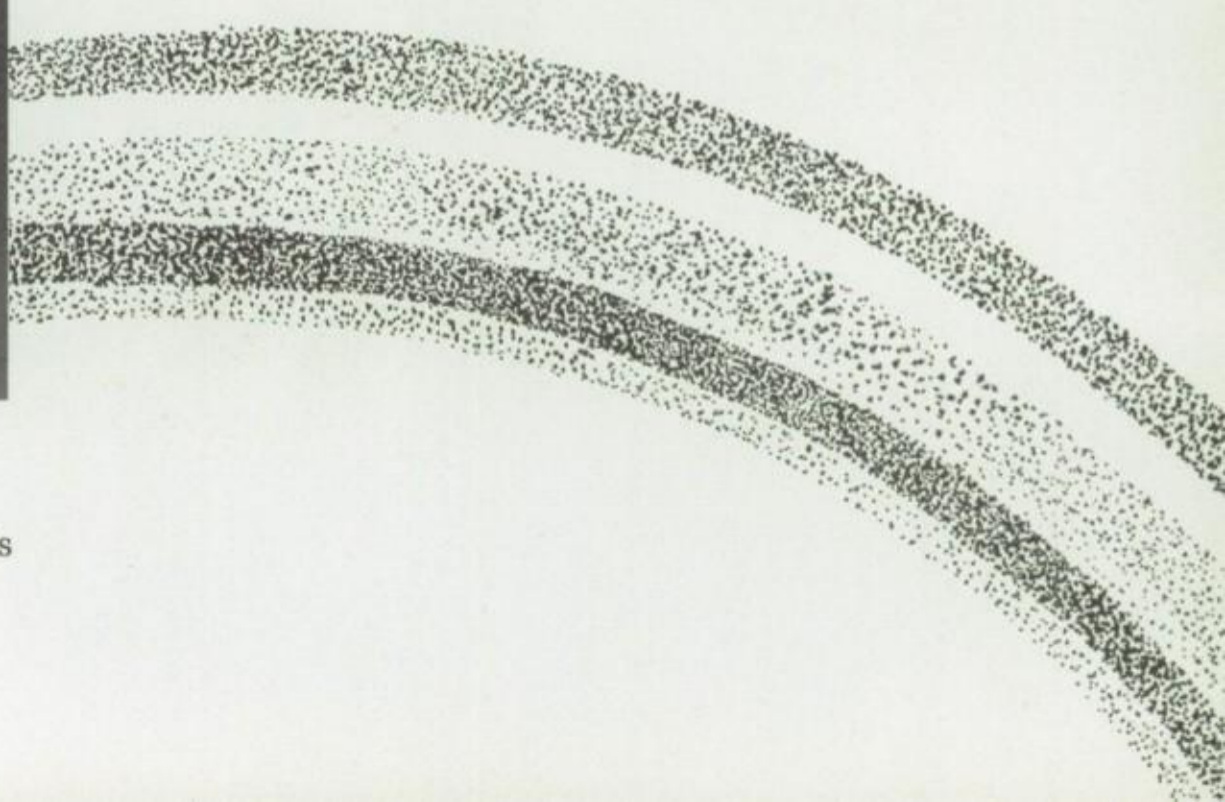

WENDE ROSE MENDEL

An aura of love and laughter surrounds the days we've spent together.

DONNA ANN MIKA

Love is one of the greatest virtues, and what we have shared will always be remembered.

DENISE MARIE MOLEND A

Friendships are fragile things which require much care and love; the friendships I found at Villa will always remain in my heart.

ANN MARIE MODZELEWSKI

An opportunist seeks fortune; an artist, fame; I seek the satisfaction of finding out who I am.

CHRISTINE MARIE NIGHTENGALE

My love has no bounds; all I ask of you is a chance to prove it.

ANN NOWAK

Our years together have been the happiest years of my life.

KAREN OKONOWSKI

A little love brings a lot of smiles.

CYNTHIA GAIL OLSZEWSKI

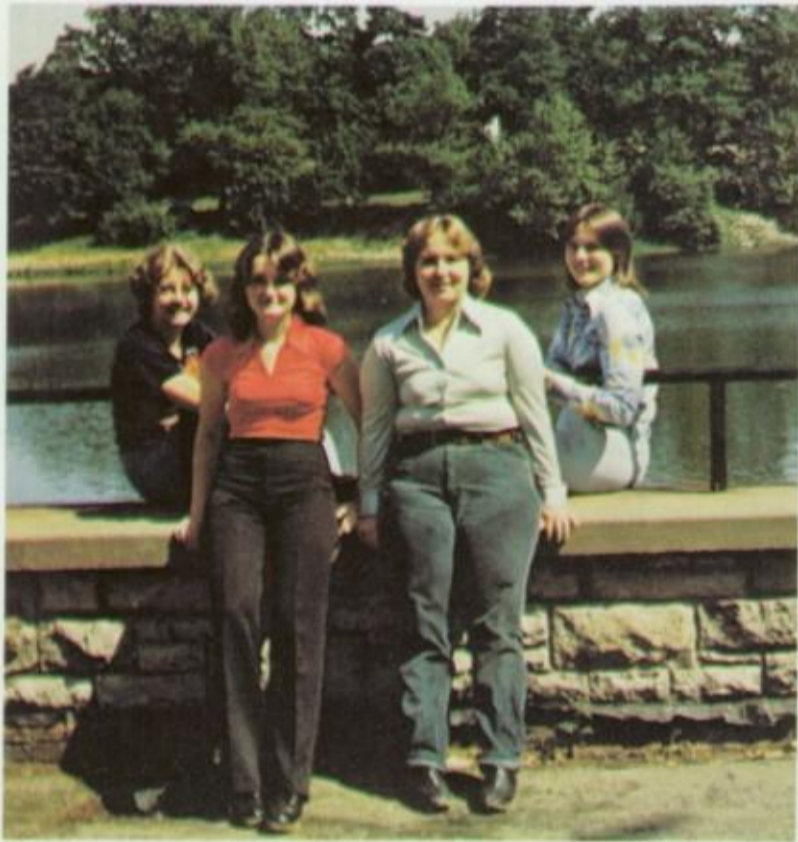

I want to feel every emotion possible in my life: from the deepest sorrow to intense joy, for only then will I be complete.

SHARON MARIE OLSZOWKA

It's not doing the thing we like, but liking the thing we do that makes life happy.

Life is shorter than you think; live each day to the fullest.

DEBORAH PEPLOWSKI

If you have love in your heart, there is peace in the world.

DONNA MARIE PILARSKI

The power of loving someone was given us but was meant to be shared with someone else.

MARY PODSIADLO

Even if your dreams don't come true, dreaming them brings you a moment of joy that is worth more than a lifetime of sadness.

DEBORAH ANN POLLINA

Music is the light of life for those who enjoy it.

LINDA MARIE POSWIATOWSKI

I memorize the moments I share with you.

DEBORAH ANN PRIMOSCH

FRAN PRZYBYLAK

Whatever I believe within my heart becomes reality with the strength of my belief.

MAUREEN ANN RATKA

Every dream must have a beginning; mine began with you.

DEBBIE ANN ROSELLE

For love to become a dream is one thing; but for a dream to become love is the greatest of dreams.

CHERYL ANN RUSTOWICZ

Dreaming, hoping, and wishing can make one's life more worthwhile.

ROSIE RUTKOWSKI

Happiness is always around us; look and you will find it.

LYNN SCHNEIDER

A friend is someone who brings a smile to your face.

NATALIE NADIA SCHWEC

All I ask of you, my friend, is love.

NANCY SEEGER

Times of joy and times of sorrow ...

SHARON ANN SOLTYSIAK

The part of you that is part of me can never be set free by any magic.

LORRAINE SPARCINO

Life is a movie and God is the producer and director.

JANETTE A. STACHOWSKI

There's one sure way of arriving in a land of love and laughter: travel the road with a friend.

PATRICIA R. SWIERCZYNSKI

I follow rainbows not for pots of gold but for friendships and smiles.

ELAINE M. SZCZEPANSKI

Look neither to the past nor to the future in seeking happiness, for it is always here.

CHRISTINE TALOWSKI

Always remember, my friend, that even on the darkest night a star shines for you ... and behind every cloud is a rainbow.

MARY B. TENDORF

We all have wishes to be someone great, but I wish only to reach my goal; and that alone is being great.

LESLIE ANN THERRIEN

Life is filled with love, joy, and happiness.

MARY TRZCINSKI

Success is worth very little unless it is shared. The way to share it is through love and friendship.

PAMELA ANN TULUMELLO

There's always tomorrow for dreams to come true.

MONICA A. WALCZAK

You gain experience through friendship and I am glad you are my friend.

KATHLEEN MARIE WALKER

Cherish all that you have while it is with you and treasure the experience and the memories when it is not.

KATHLEEN M. WARD

If I am my best, the world will be a better place.

LENORE WESOŁOWSKI

Smiles of friends we leave behind are rainbows in our memories.

MARY BETH WILECKI

I have someone who understands me; she knows how to give and shows me exactly what life is all about.

JANICE M. WOZNIAK

To live happy is to be happy.

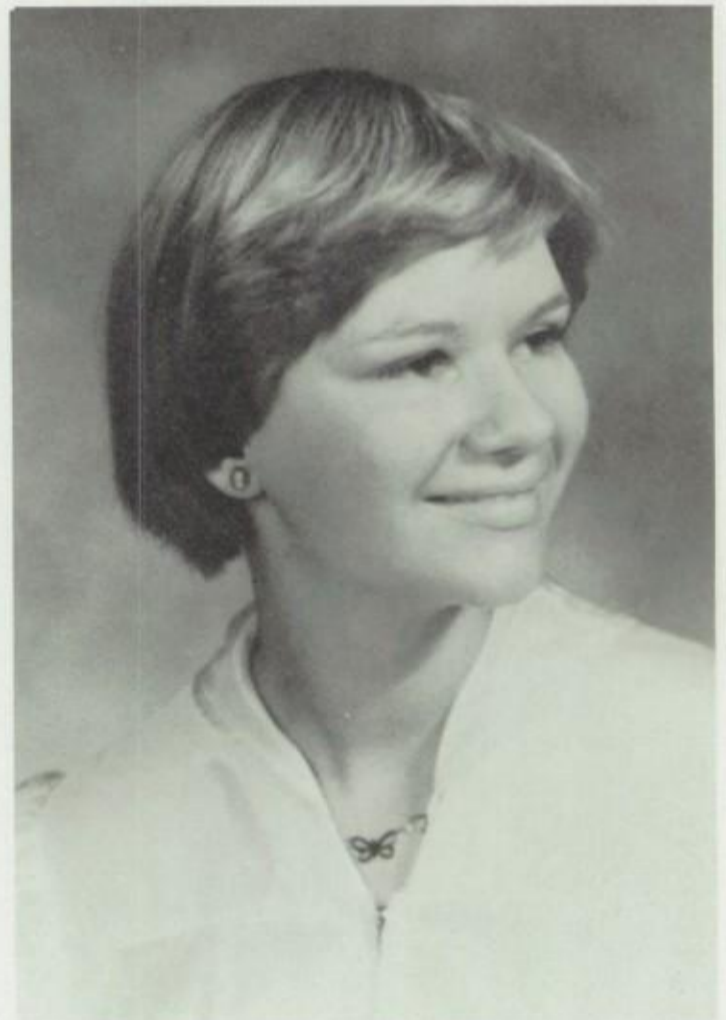

SHARON A. ZALEWSKI

I love you for not only what you are, but for what I am when I am with you.

SUSAN ZBIGNIEWICZ

The friends I have today are the friends I will never forget.

THERESA MARIE ZUZEL

With the approach of every new day, the sun shines, the birds sing, and the early morning dew lingers.

Every Junior, every Freshman,
Every hopeful Sophomore
Has a dream upon a rainbow
Growing brighter evermore.

Underclassmen

Juniors

Did you ever make the Honor Roll? Elaine Eschberger, Diane Borkowski, and Bernadette Casper check the "First Honors" list.

So what's a little nip in the autumn air! Theresa Szydowski, Camille Zolkiewicz, Gail Urbanczyk, Patricia Wojcik, and Susan Sturm have the Vilmarian smile that can warm up any weather anytime.

Can't anybody play that tune? Elizabeth Campbell, Maryann Burke, Rosemarie Bielanin, and Carol Cantie need an accompanist.

The Star Spangled banner waves over Anna Folga, Cynthia Zak, Linda Goia, and Cheryl Dolan, who are proud to be Vilmarians.

They fit right into the niche of the grotto. Tall: Patricia Luciani, taller: Suzanne Lachman, tallest: Donna Kmidowski.

Quick, before the camera freezes! Linda Szablewski, Louise Szeglowski, and Ann Siedlikowski make a hardy threesome, rain or shine, cold or warm.

So much parking space ... no cars. At this point, Carolyn Fischer, Christine Bres, Mary Jean Angielczyk, Susan Dietl, and Deborah Collins can only dream.

Barbara Kappen, Marcia Jankowiak, Joanne Handzlik, and Karen Szymanski can appreciate a thought that deepens their vision of spiritual realities.

They have the "right" angle on Villa: (left to right) Sophie Forman, Cynthia Grochowina, Margaret Jung, Lynda Hughes, and Michelle Herc.

Do you know why (left to right) Carol Murphy, Kathleen Markiewicz, Kathleen Quinn, Cynthia Mondry, Linda Landsman, and Patricia Pollina like this back "exit" door? It means the school day's over.

Posing prettily on the stairway to the Athletic Center are (standing) Mary Markielowski, Michelle Plewinski, Judith Olszewski, (sitting) Pauline Reczek, and Isabelle Nieduzak.

Hold your balance just a little longer! (Front) Elizabeth Wilk, Laurie Galantowicz, (back) Rose Twardowski, Joan Wojcik, and Linda Hastreiter appear not to be at all shaky.

Cynthia Helak, (seated) Camille Czajka, Kathleen Chudzinski, and Mary Ann Joyce have the answer: it is "busy-ness."

Words of wisdom from the Bible are always available to Theresa Kolb, Mary Beth Robinson, Sharon Skarzynski, and Christine Sexton in Room 210.

Annie Morey, Jim Piwowarski, Mary Meyernofer, and Diane Nowak examine what's left of the victim-tree after the historic blizzard of '77.

For once, a dry day! Coming down through the archway are Bonnie Lipiec, Barbara Modelski, Andrea Michalczyk, Barbara La Belle, Marie Niedzwiecki, and Joyce Noreck.

Six pretty lasses find a pretty spot near the chapel: Julie Schuler, Jacqueline Rzeznik, Susan Podosek, Julianne Rybarczyk, Mary Lou Rejewski, and Theresa Poltowicz.

The chapel is the heart of Villa. Maria Rullan, Ann Marie Socha, Sharon Rutkowski, Lisa Santoro, and Laurie Seiser pose in the familiar entrance.

Robin Zynda, Kathleen Zelaszkiewicz, and Kathryn Zaluski are in perfect a-chord; the piano could stand some tuning up.

The reception room is a friendly, cozy place. (Seated): Margaret Smith, Suzanne Suski, (standing): Suzanne Hora, and Debra Staufenberger welcome you to find out for yourself.

Catching up on their reading? Charlene Alecki, Christine Burke, Anna Biernacki, and Linda Stepnick demonstrate one way of doing it.

In the cheery Home Ec. room, (left to right) Janine Kalinowski, Mary Krzyzanowski, Mary Beth Lazarski, and Laurene Janiszewski enjoy some student table talk.

This may be very comfortable, but Darlene Sliwinski, Linda Russo, Constance Shine, and Jacqueline Schmid had better return to the classroom.

Turning the corner, Marie Feskun, Helen Grzybowski, Lori Ehmka, and Lou Ann Jezewski come down the second floor hallway for change of classes.

Sophomores

In the autumnal setting of Villa's grounds, Janet Biniszkiewicz, Daune Bell, Catherine Cialone, Alonzetta Collins, and Anula Buda promenade down the leaf — strewn path on the convent side.

It takes care and patience but Michelle Harris, Cynthia Kania, and Lynn Lewandowski know that the violets will appear sooner or later.

Between the academy and the chapel, Donna Skompinski, Darlene Schmid, and Lisa Pruchniewski chose a Vilmarian spot to remember.

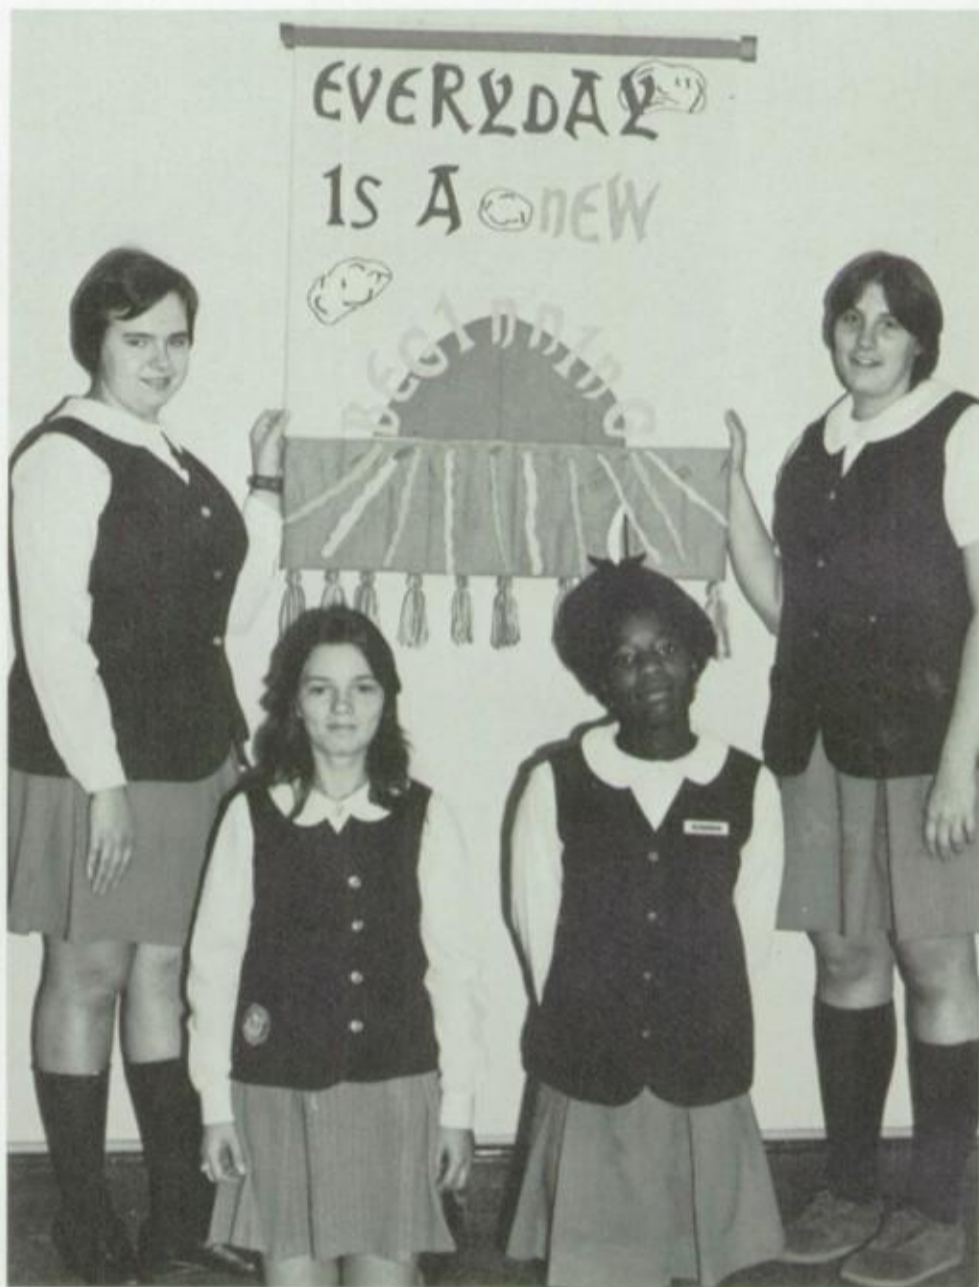

A bushy nook at the back of the grotto has just enough room for (front) Jennifer Podsiadlo, Sandra Piatek, (back) Theresa Makson, and Kimberly Kosmowski.

Lynette Szuflika, Irene Acker, and Barbara Zak admire the plant that will soon reach to the floor.

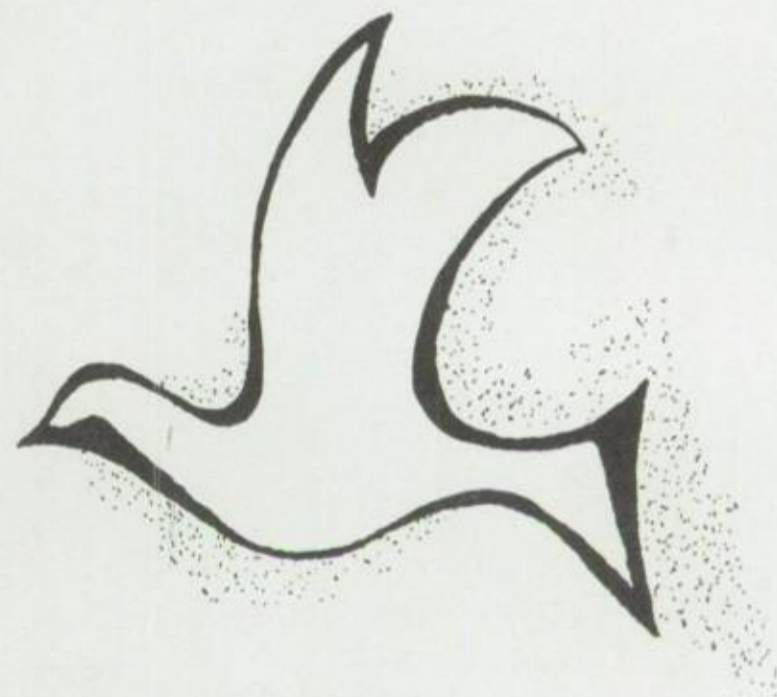

(Kneeling) Rita Schiffmaker, Patrice Rainey, (standing) Karen Smigiera, and Joanne Roberts find a good reminder that helps them through the day.

(Seated) Lynda Lijewski, Cynthia Piskorz, (standing) Carolyn Raczka, and Judith Muschaweck are typical Vilmarians who have a happy student life in or out of class.

Each day, Regina Collura, Kathy Czerwiec, Nancy De Reu, and Angela Marco walk past the main bulletin which highlights school interests and events.

On Villa's extensive premises, Elizabeth Weltz, Catherine Schadel, Isabela Velez, Charlene Sparcino, and Elizabeth Rizzo found a little porch where they lined up for the camera.

Villa days are happy days for (front) Linda Federici, Madonna Czarnecki, (back) Lynn Gradl, and Sandra Drabek.

This can't be the Academy wing. Clare Ceranski, Lora Crespo, Debra Dudziak, and Jennifer Derion never came down this stairway on the "other end" of the campus.

Imagine not having to copy it by hand! Anita Reiner and Debra Mergenhagen do it the easy way: xeroxing.

Like many Vilmarians each day, Diane Kurek, Melody McIlwain, and Jane Napierski stop in the office to settle one matter or another.

Sharon Zotara, Nancy Stencel, Marie Szeglowski, Marlene Maryniak, and Laurie Swiatkowski pause for a picture in the breezeway.

Stopping for a brief prayer before the grotto of Our Lady are (kneeling) Jacqueline Rybinski, Sandra Nowak, (standing) Mary Siedlikowski, and Karen Sobieraj.

(Kneeling) Eltonya Rogers, Nanette Pudlewski, (standing) Ellen Pitts, Bonita Rozewicz, and Darlene Rustowicz are surrounded by the autumnal splendor of Villa.

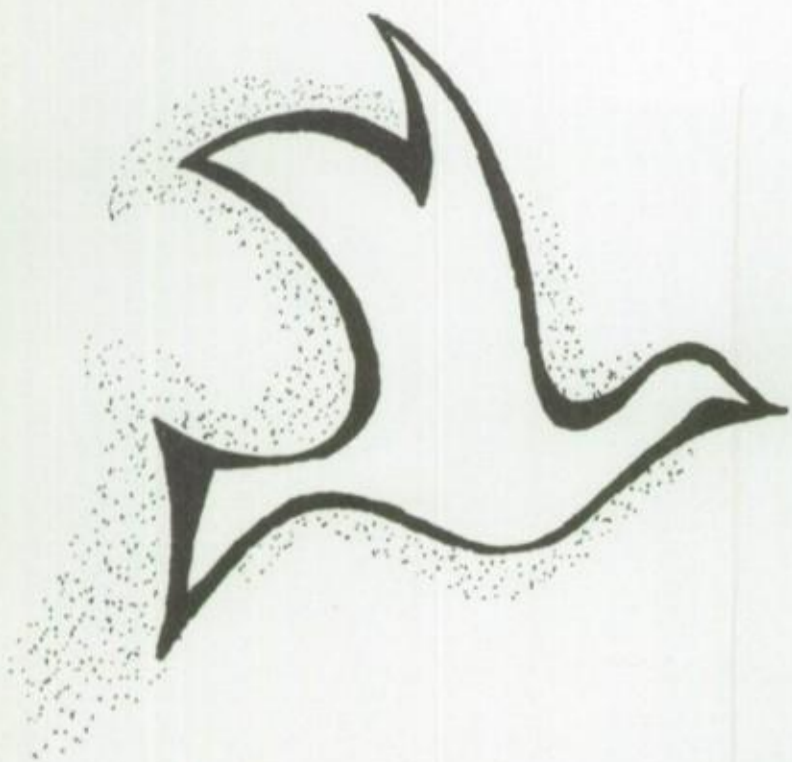

The crunch of leaves around Villa reminds (kneeling) Jacqueline Kasting, and Sharon Komanski, (standing) Michelle Matusiak, Renata Halaiski, Dianne Hyrek, and Sandra Manikowski that their Sophomore year is rushing on.

The books are ready whenever the students are. Donna Gruenthaner, Carol Filipski, Lisa Kazmierzak, and Cynthia Jablonski find handy texts in the English class.

From this position on the stairway of VM College, (front) Kim Szeluga, Dana Ziemecki, Eileen Smith, (back) Kathleen Wesolowski, Karen Schroeder, and Sharon Strychalski get a full view of the Villa campus.

A happy atmosphere in convenient, well – equipped classrooms help Elaine Cieslak, Bonita Bernard, Sharon Bryk, and Pamela Bartoszek to make good progress in their studies.

Worth your reading, girls! Joyce King (fourth from left) recommends a good pamphlet to Michelle Konwicki, Jacqueline Hoelzl, Karen Januszkiewicz, and Marlene Johnson.

What's the hurry? Lisa Campanelli, Jeanine Biniaszewski, and Joan Cieply enjoy a few more draughts of the cool, autumn air before morning classes.

From the chapel, Elaine Patenaude, Debbie Niemczal, and Ann Peplowski pass down St. Anthony's corridor to the Academy building.

Let's just keep marching! Susan Ciesla, Linda Dzienciol, Michelle Collins, Kathleen Decz, and Patricia Burke have an inexhaustible supply of energy.

Barbara Markoff, Justine Pasternak, and Rose Ann Miranda know their way around. The first place to know is the Principal's office.

Freshmen

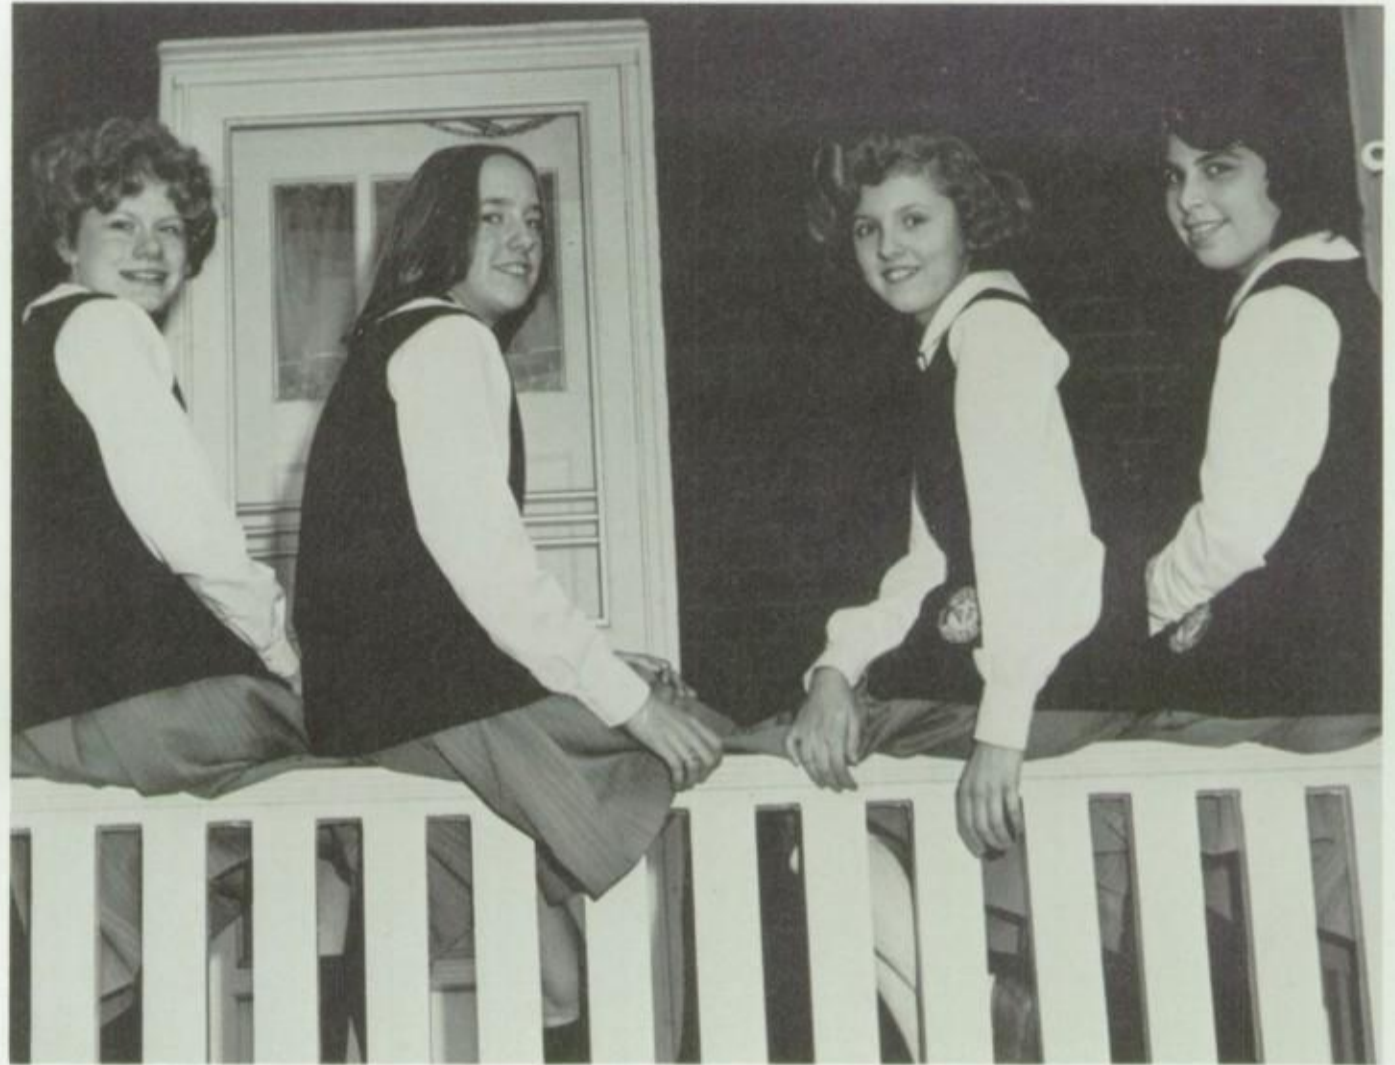

Do you mean that's a dress? Camille Towner and Cheryl Walkowiak show (seated) Marie Zotara, (standing) Jeanne Suski, and Sharon Witek a "sari" worn by the women of India.

Freshmen should get acquainted with the library. Theresa Chmura, Margaret Cych, Donna Dzienciol, Mary Faltisco, and Kathleen Dixon get some pointers on the use of references.

Cheryl Jedrysik, Linda Harzynski, and Suzanne Kujawa get a preview of what Earth Science is all about.

From the little back porch of the chaplain's residence, Colleen Carlin, Aimee Birner, Jennifer Achatz, and Charlene Clark get a different perspective of Villa's surroundings.

Villa would not be complete without this address on the premises. (Sitting) Cynthia Lysiak, Susan Kaminski, Kathleen Lauer, (standing) Donna Murray, Denise Mejak, and Karen Kotlowski may surprise Fr. Evarist with this friendly intrusion on his front doorstep.

There's no day so gloomy it cannot be brightened by the smiles of Vilmarians like (kneeling) Donna Queeno, (standing) Aimee Rybarczyk, Karen Przybyl, Roxanne Staszak, and Donna Skibicki.

The vine — covered tufa grotto of Our Lady dominates the scene of Villa. (Front) Jeanette Ruper, Lisa Schneider, (back) Amy Gatz, Mary Beth Superczynski, and Yvonne Sroka visit this site dear to all Vilmarians.

Happiness is being a freshman at Villa. (Front) Suzanne Bett, Sharon Chwalinski, Gale Cymny, (back) Theresa Faleski, and Bonnie Dietl.

The spirit of Villa is passed on to and kept alive by enthusiastic freshmen like Rosemarie De Ross, Anne Boczar, Luisa Cerrato, and Susan Blenk, lined up in front of the Athletic Center.

(Front) Lorianne Krzyzanowski, Elizabeth Kapturowski, (middle) Lise Ann Jenkins, (top) Rosemarie Grobelski, Pamela Lewandowski, and Anna Gorczynski remember when the front entrance door first opened in a friendly welcome to Villa.

Don't all freshmen wish to be the best they can be? Villa can help (front) Kathleen Braniecki, Mary Anne Borgioli, Barbara Chmielewski, (back) Linda Cyman, and Cheryl Ziemba share and realize their dream.

An outdoor class? No, but the campus benches are still around to let Catherine Protas, Cynthia Pughakoff, Lisa Pepe, Laura Winiarski, Cynthia Zalikowski, and Joyce Wozniak enjoy the last days of the season.

Getting the feel of it? Four years will pass sooner than you think and (front) Dianna O'Dell, Julie Paul, Mary Jane Przybylski, (back) Lynn Pokornowski, Ann Nicpon, and Cynthia Rolando will be ready for another step: college.

Each day more faces become more familiar to Madonna Warzel, Antoinette Szeglowski, Janet Wojcik, Colleen Stouffer, and Ann Marie Kutas, as they get to know their fellow Vilmarians.

Pauline Lewandowski, Karen Michienzi, Michelle Mathews, and Patricia Miller recognize the "Latin" room by the bust of the great Caesar.

Michele Jernatowski, Michelle Edwards, and Karen Damasiewicz stop in the bookstore to purchase sundry items needed in routine schoolwork.

Freshmen need refreshment! Anita Carriero and Susan Golofit chuckle over a bottle of pop in the candy store.

Inside or outside, Villa is the most beautiful place for (front) Suzanne Kulas, Darlene Kempisty, Paula Mills, (back) Deanna Lewis, and Julie Kazmierzak.

A new life with new ties and new friends has just begun for Mary Melling, Linda Nawotka, (sitting) Theresa Pacelli, and Debra Meier.

(Seated) Mary Ellen Mazurkiewicz, Roxanne Kotlarek, (standing) Joanne Lynch, Ann Marie Lommer, and Kim Marzolf are learning the Vilmarian spirit of friendliness and togetherness.

(Front) Judith Gilbraith, Lisa Voight, (standing) Ann Wieliczko, and Colette Suplicki complement the fall decor around the campus.

From this wind-blown corner, Diane Rzeszutek, Linda Viapiano, Donna Szeluga, Mary Streicher, Diane Walsh, and Melanie Sprawka take in a fresh view of the grounds around the Academy.

Not a sit-down strike! Studies, projects, and activities fill the school day of (front) Laura Colern, (middle) Susan Janora, Nancy Grasso, Donna Karas, (back) Diane Dudek, and Beverly Czerminski.

It's never too soon to think of college. Trying out the long stairs of the VMC are (front) Karen Raimonde, Sandra Owczarczak, Barbara Pylkowski, Jacqueline Raimonde, Teresa Russo, (back) Catherine Reczek, Debbie Skompinski, and Tricia Przespo.

If they can do this, they can do anything. (Front) Nancy Szablewski, Janet Turner, Deborah Schmitt, (back) Brenda Stachura, Kimberly Ratajczak, and Judith Sheppard are determined to succeed in everything.

How many times a day do we go up and down this stairway? Ask (front) Susan Kruzel, (back) Theresa Marciniak, Kathleen Lech, and Janine Mackowiak.

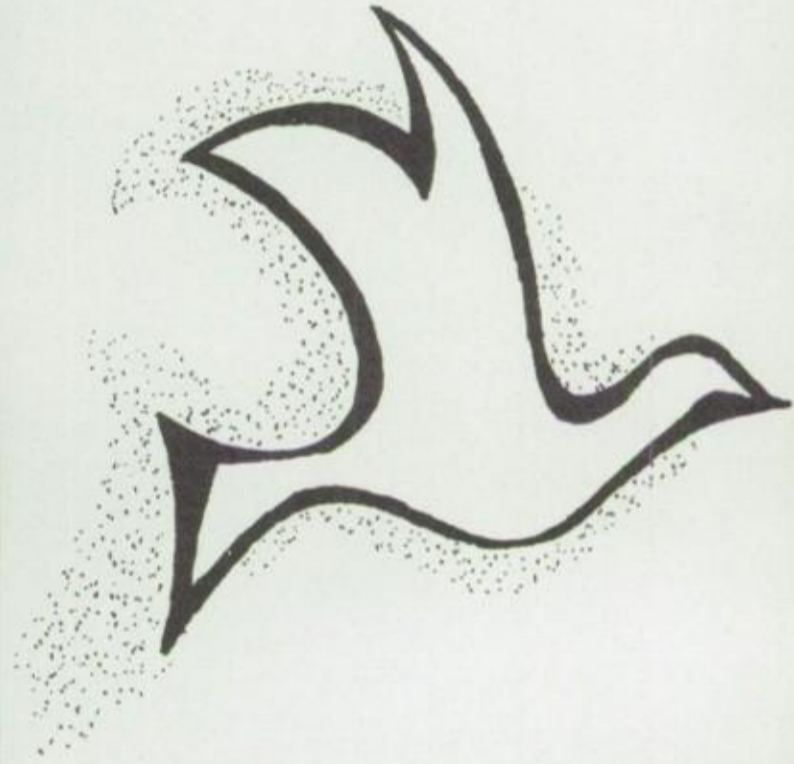

Bright smiling faces of Laura Pinkowski, Maria Pudlak, Catherine Phillips, and Suzanne Przybyl shine along Villa's corridor.

This way to the school auditorium for class meetings. (Left to right) Judith Wesolowski, Linda Wisniewski, Elizabeth Woloszyn, and Maria Corrigan have no difficulty in finding their way around.

In the art room, Maria Whitred plays critic, pointing out her first choice to Ann Turyk, Ruth Tomaszewski, and (seated) Donna Voigt.

Mary Ruksc, Barbara Wojcik, Susan Primosch, Gail Nowak, and (standing) Ellen Pease will carry on the Vilmarian tradition of devotion to the Mother of Jesus.

Every student needs a rainbow
To keep her spirit lifted high;
Each endeavor is rewarded
By the promise in the sky.

Student Life

Studies

"Where I came from and who came before me helps to shape the person I am becoming." Nancy De Reu, Anula Buda, Susan Zakurzewski and Elizabeth Beaudoin trace their family backgrounds.

The cookware of India seems to have limited possibilities. Barbara Wojcik whets the appetites of her classmates, Ann Boczar, Ann Marie Turyk, Amy Gatza, and Cynthia Pughakoff.

Nancy Seeger, Rose Twardowski and (back) Michelle Damasiewicz find peace and strength for the day in a reflective moment before their Lord.

Dreams can become reality when supported by desire, effort and endurance. The roads to successful living are numerous and challenging. Academic pursuits serve as pathways to reach that illusive pot of gold — the reward of achievement, the satisfaction of realizing a job well-done. Each step along that road, each subject, provides opportunities for discovering one's identity, one's destiny and one's capabilities. The walk into tomorrow begins with the ambitious efforts of today.

Lorianne Krzyzanowski, Diane Dudek, Barbara Markoff, Mary Faltisco, Lisa Pepe, and Melanie Sprawka blend filmstrips, music and the Word to find the Way.

Studying the culture as well as the language helps in understanding the people. Mary Tendorf, Phyllis Janowski, and Teresa Gorniak practice a Polish folk dance.

Elizabeth Kurzdorfer and Bettina Dornig find time to "Fall in Love with France."

"Que Pasa, Señoritas." Lisa Santoro, Julie Schuler and Patricia Luciani review some Spanish literature.

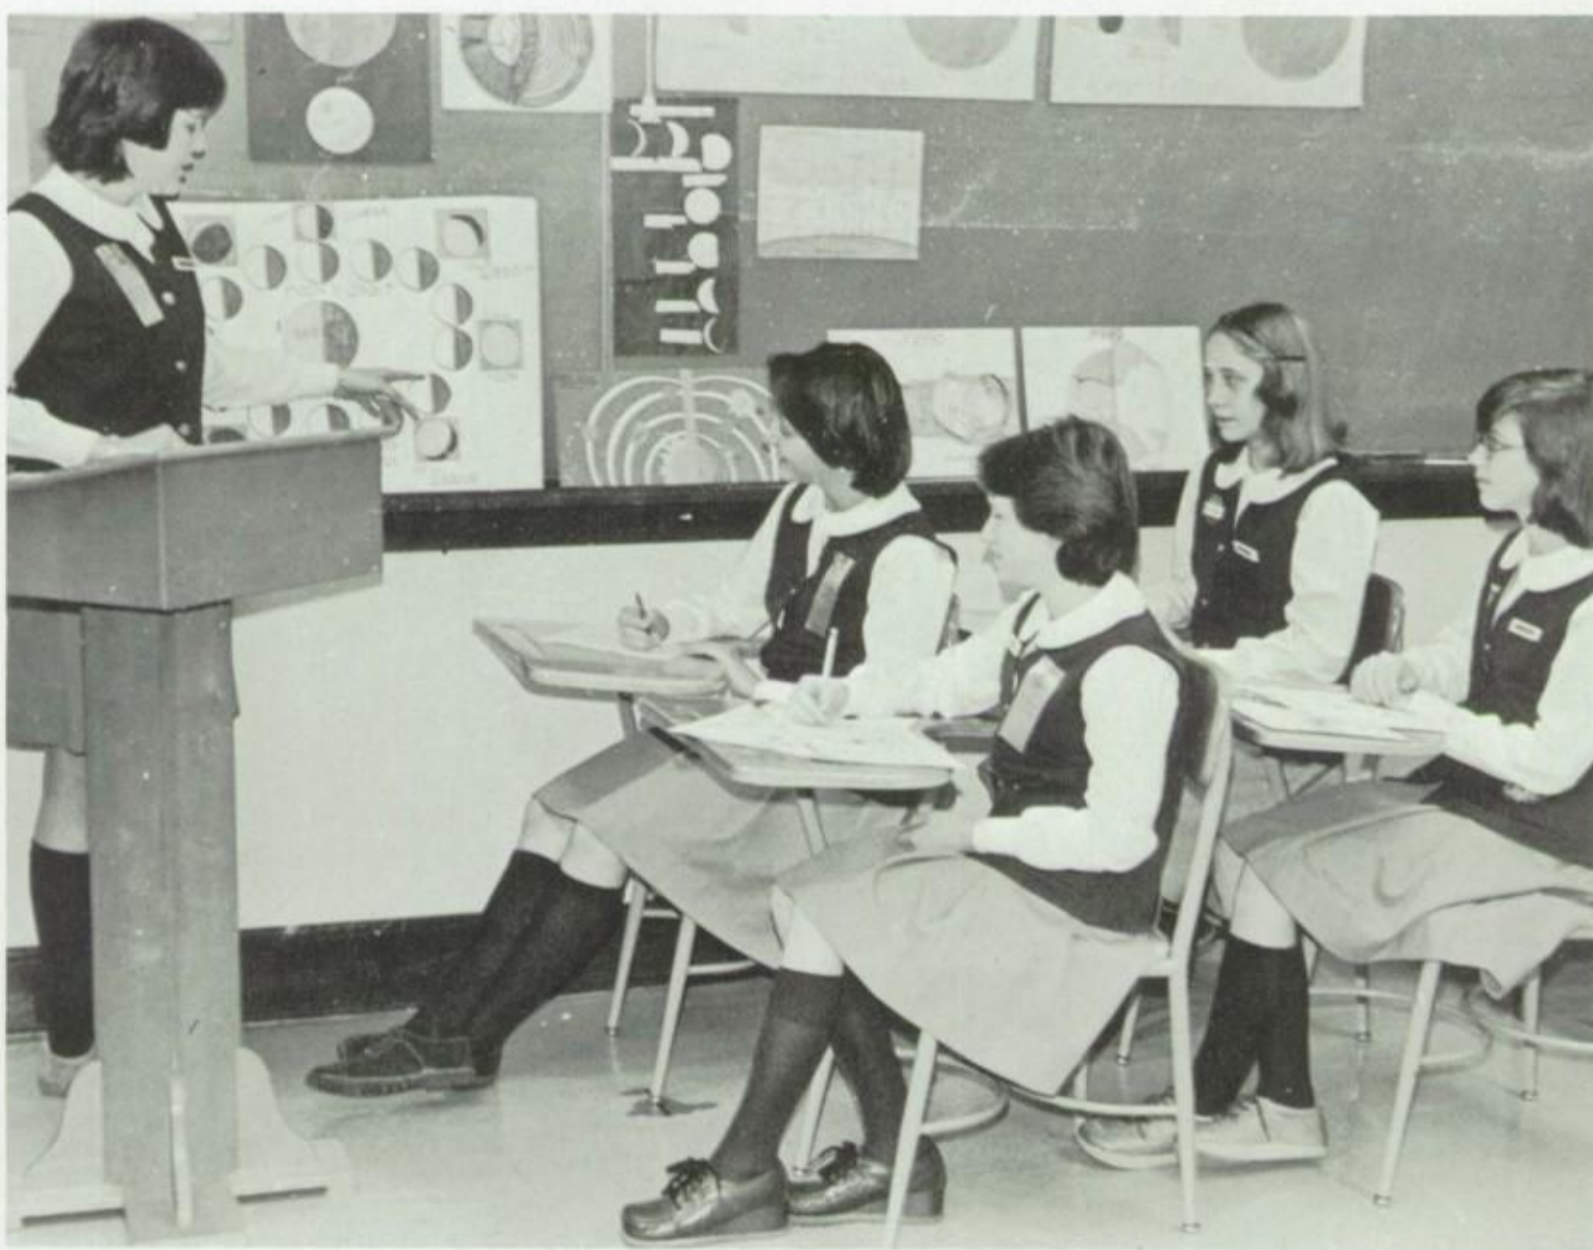

Cynthia Adamski, Susan Ciesla and Bonita Rozewicz, are analyzing a sentence in their English 10 class.

Sister Celina Marie's choral group rehearses the Prayer of St. Francis, "Make me a channel of your peace."

Lorraine Sparcino and Diane Balera trace the path of the target sphere. Their joint efforts are sure to hit the mark.

Mary Ann Bochynski directs the moon trip around the earth. Attentively Linda Viapiano, Mary Streicher, Anita Carriero and Elizabeth Woloszyn follow the space plan.

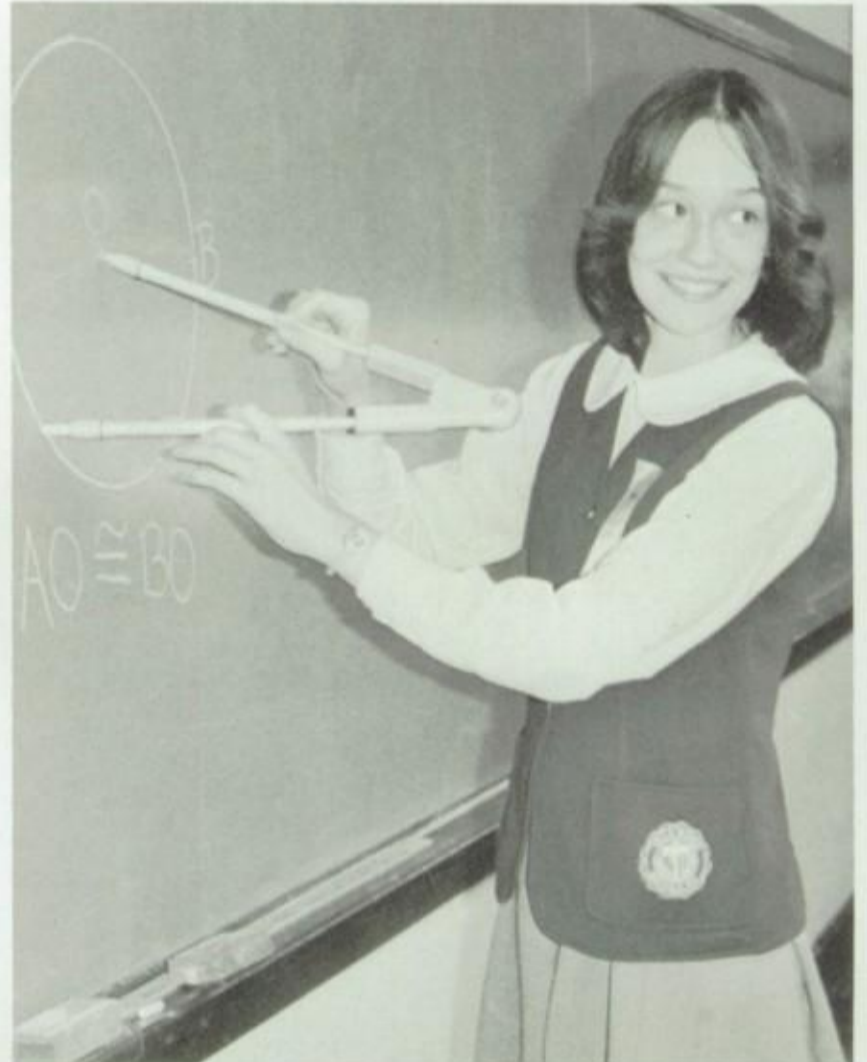

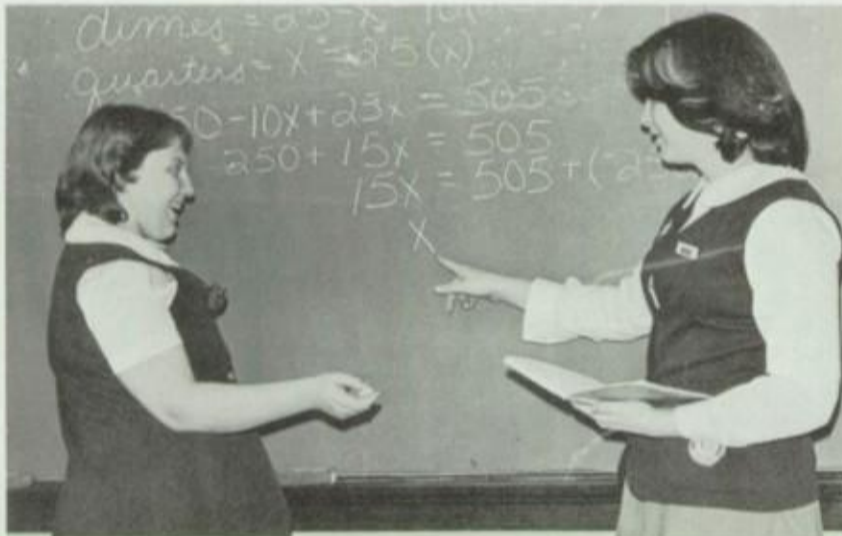

Finding her blood type fascinates Lynn Empric. But Monica Pollak doesn't seem too thrilled as Cheryl Mason prepares to make her the next victim.

Electrolyte solutions can light up a bulb and the faces of Junior chemists, Elaine Eschberger, Carol Cantie, and Michelle Herc.

Construction is the first step in this geometric proof. Kathleen Opera demonstrates her precision in drawing the circle.

Lynette Szuflika and Susan Ciesla rejoice at the near successful completion of an algebraic problem.

Trigonometry challenges the Junior mathematicians. Sophie Forman throws some new curves at her bewildered classmates, Christine Bres, Michelle Herc, Elaine Eschberger, Julie Schuler, Lori Galantowicz and Cynthia Helak.

Oil painting is a new experience for Senior artists. Competing with Rembrandt are Mary Podsiadlo, Kathleen Kacprowicz, Deborah Pollina and Patricia Kesick.

Various projects evoke the creativity of Art Appreciation students. Susan Kulas casts a curious glance at the "angelic" attempts of Suzanne Kujawa.

Rose Twardowski, Linda Paciejonek and Janette Stachowski admire the talents of students at the Villa Maria College Art Show.

Ingenuity and paper are all one needs to create a new image. Freshmen Mary Mazurkiewicz, Justine Pasternak, Barbara Wojcik, Janet Wojcik and Susan Blenk wonder what their masks tell about them.

Kathleen Walker files the latest edition of "Today's Secretary."

With earphones plugged in, Monica Walczak confidently prepares to use the Dictaphone.

Mrs. Sokolowski's Typing Class pecks away . . . asdf . . . asdf . . . asdf . . . asdf.

Sandy Decz can more easily balance an account in book-keeping than keep track of her own spending.

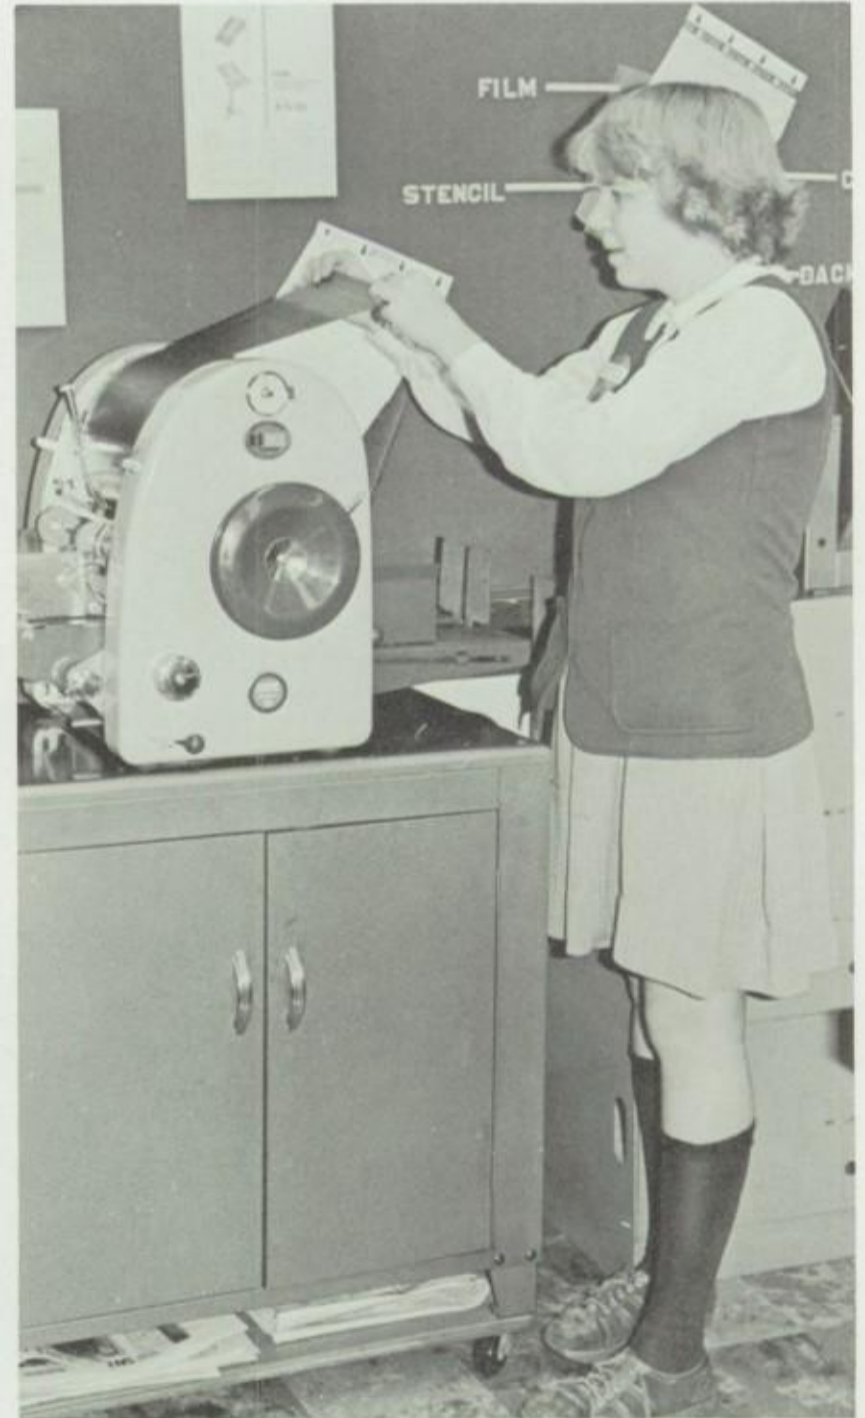

Amazed Lynn Schneider adds $1 + 1$ on the new-fangled electronic calculator. The sum is "three", of course.

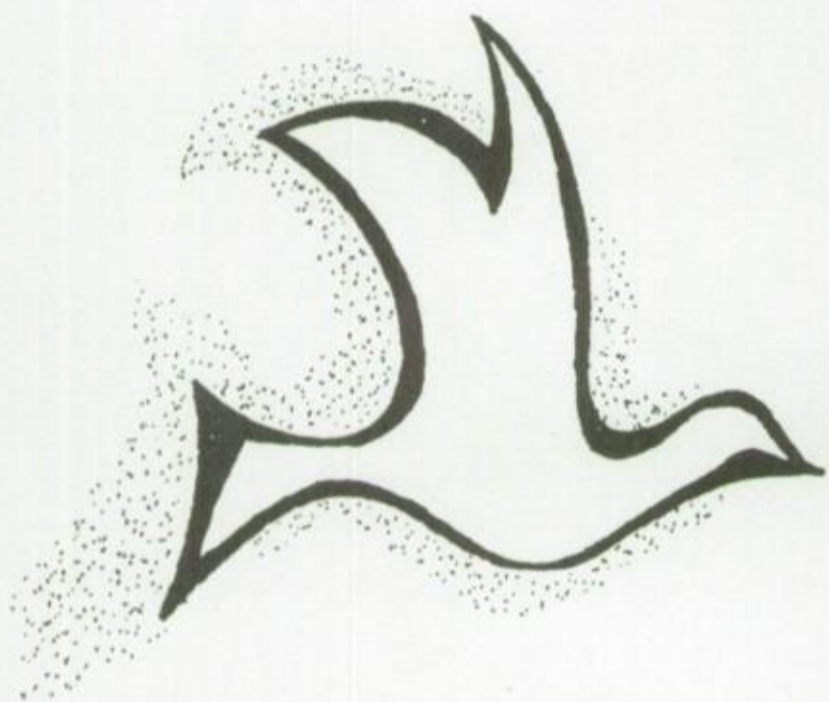

Sandy Dudziak agrees to take a letter for S.M. Louise. But, please, Sister not at 120 w.p.m.

Michelle Janora successfully operated the "spirited" duplicator that seems to give everyone trouble.

Donna Mika straightens the stencil for a perfectly balanced run.

Looking forward to a coming event, Gail Urbanczyk cuts out her new outfit.

Diligent seamstresses, Natalie Schwec, Susan Dietl and Janine Kalinowski concentrate on straight stitching.

Nutrition conscious Louise Szeglowksi, Kathryn Zaluski and Linda Federici are intensely searching for the caloric values of various foods.

Freshmen bakers, Donna Bender, Joyce Wozniak, Julie Kazmierzak, Anne Marie Nicpon, Marie Zotara, and Anne Marie Lommer prepare some tempting Christmas treats.

Organizations

Ticket takers, Ann Nicpon and Bonnie Rozewicz, pleasantly greet their customers, Marie Szeglowski and Kathleen Dixon, at the School Dance.

Student Council

The quick, intricate steps of Cindy Grochowina, and Terry Marciniak, both amuse and bewilder the spectators.

Relaxing after their performance, members of the Cornell Glee Club enjoy refreshments in the Cafeteria.

Only the dreamer who dares to chase the illusive rainbow of hopes and dreams will discover the pot of golden success. The wholistic approach to education supplements formal education with enriching extracurricular activities. Many and varied organizations afford individuals opportunities to stimulate their interest, strengthen their leadership, and develop their self-confidence. Meeting the challenges in youth organizations prepares responsible citizens of tomorrow's world.

Pat Bochynski, vice-president and Donna Kostrzycki, president, express their appreciation for the fine performance.

All important events are cleared with the Student Council. Kathy Galenski (Recording Secretary), Donna Kostrzycki (President) and Patricia Bochynski (Vice President) finalize dates for the Skating Party and Dance.

Each year the Student Council publishes a telephone directory. Michelle Matthews and Anne Borgioli proofread Telephone Line '77-'78.

Kathy Czech and Karen Okonowski chart the progress of the magazine subscription drive.

Stu-Co members prepare for school spirit week: (Seated) Theresa Chmura, Anula Buda, Mary Beth Superczynski, Yvonne Sroka, and Mary Ruksc. (Standing) Stephane Bowens, Michelle Matusiak, Jennifer Podsiadlo, and Sandra Manikowski.

Elaine Szczepanski directs traffic on the first floor.

Tallying school spirit points are (Standing) Patricia Bochynski, Monica Walczak (seated) Denise Borkowski, Mary Beth Lazarski, and Mary Streicher.

Sister Amelia instructs Ann Modzelewski on the procedure for attaching the electronic flash to the camera.

Vilmarian

Staff typists, Ann Nowak and Pat Jarnot confer to assure the accuracy of the copy.

Attractive pages depend upon the artistic finesse of Mary Podsiadlo, Michelle Janora, Anna Klos, and Debra Filipowicz.

Lenore Wesolowski finds an error.

Business managers, Sandra Dudziak and Terry Gorniak return collected patrons to Sister M. Louise.

Co-editor Lenore Anderson and editor Sue Marzec discuss the progress of the yearbook.

Phyllis Jankowski maintains the yearbook files.

Villecho

Michelle Kaminski, editor, consults on last details with the advisor, S.M. Claudianne.

S.M. Eustace explains the techniques of writing an article to a captivated audience. Front row: Karen Kotlowski and Kim Szeluga. Back row: Anita Reiner, Janet Biniszkiewicz, Michelle Edwards and Karen Januszkiewicz.

Delivery day is always exciting. Dolores Bellanti, Julie Rybarczyk, Patricia Wojcik and Joan Wojcik unpack the December issue.

Lou Ann Jezewski and Barbara Zak create a fine story line for the newspaper.

Barbara Modelski and Anne Morey lay out the articles for the next issue.

Christian Living Community

The Retreat Committee, Therese Szydowski, Sue Marzec, and Anne Morey, together with Sister Mary Josette as moderator, prepare a liturgical service for the coming retreats.

Prayer is the focal point for true Christian Living. (Kneeling) Mary Lou Rejewski, Jill Piwowski, Mary Meyerhofer, Carolyn Fischer, Sharon Skarzynski, Diane Borkowski, (standing) Christine Sexton, Bernadette Casper, and Monica Walczak, reflect on the coming of Christ during the Advent prayer service.

C.L.C. members hear the Gospel plea to clothe the naked. (kneeling) Laurie Seiser and (standing) Barbara Modelski pack some clothing for a needy family.

The old and infirmed will find new ways of recycling Christmas cards collected by C.L.C. members. Mary Markielowski, Rose Twardowski, and Kathleen Quinn bundle them for shipping.

Inductees solemnly pledge themselves to living a deeper faith commitment. Row 1: Monica Walczak, prefect, Andrea Michalczyk, Laurie Seiser, Pauline Reczek, Chris Sexton, Mary Lou Rejewski, Theresa Poltowicz, Rose Twardowski, Bernadette Casper. Row 2: Barbara Modelski, Diane Borkowski, Mary Beth Lazarski, Carolyn Fischer, Mary Meyerhofer, and Charlene Alecki.

Teresa Gorniak, prefect, and Elizabeth Krywalski browse through a biography of St. Francis.

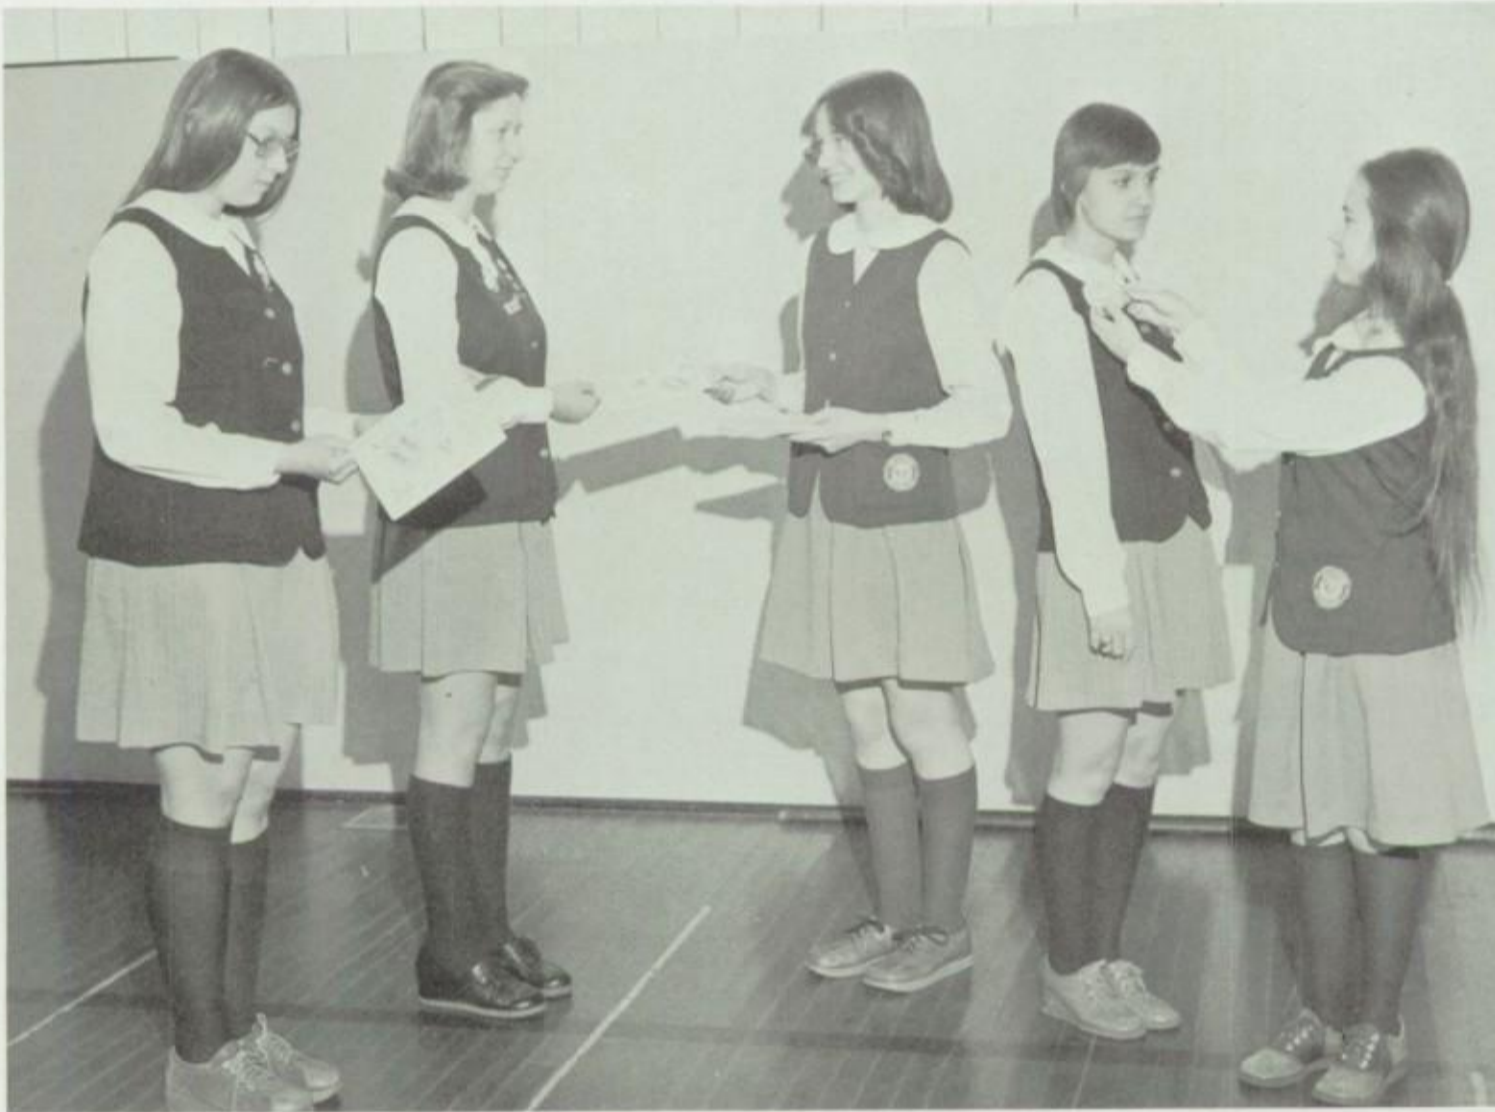

Third Order of St. Francis

Following the Franciscan tradition of re-enacting the Christmas scene, Teresa Gorniak, Elizabeth Krywalski and Julianne Chmielewski prepare the display in the Infirmary.

Mission Club

Puzzles and badges alert students to the importance of supporting the missions. Annette Bonus, Patricia Jarnot, Catherine Opera, Lenore Wesolowski and Sandra Owczarczak prove their commitment to the cause of spreading the faith.

Stamps are as good as gold when redeemed for the Missions. Ann Marie Lommer, Kim Szeluga and Lou Ann Jezewski, willingly do the sorting.

Red Cross

Kathleen Zelaszkiewicz, Cynthia Grochowina, and Mary Beth Lazarski load the car with toys for underprivileged children.

Red Cross members radiate Christmas joy for the Sisters at Villa Maria Infirmary.

Halloween goblins share Halloween treats with the infirmed Sisters as Red Cross members make a spooky but welcomed visit.

Literary Club

Miss K. Delaney, moderator, challenges (seated) Sandra Nowak, Madonna Warzel, Mary Siedlikowski, Patty Burke, Linda Viapiano and (standing) Jane Napierski to new cultural experiences.

Pep Club

The Pep Club representatives, Anna Gorczynski, Michelle Plewinski, Natalie Schwec, Sharon Zalewski, and Barbara Zak count the Campbell Soup labels.

Thrilled inductees, Anna Klos, Donna Kostrzycki and Paula Walsh, await the events of the day.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society members encourage new students at High School Information Night. Paula Laskowski, President, and Elaine Szczepanski, Vice-President, organize a slide presentation depicting the assets of the school.

Carolyn Fischer successfully met the challenge of the National Honor Society Spelling Contest.

At induction ceremonies in the Villa Maria Chapel, members pledge their loyalty and service.

Activities

Annette Pyszczyński, Colleen Brzyski, Donna Gatzka, and Antoinette Pyszczyński examine baskets made in Art Appreciation.

Catholic Schools Week

Joanne Roberts, Melody McIlwain and Karen Mount admire the projects displayed during Catholic Schools Week.

Dolores Bellanti directs Kathy Blaszczyk along the Latin Road to Success.

Exchanging history projects in Catholic Schools Week are Yvonne Domanski and Carla Colern.

Nina Piechocki and Karen Ponczkowski enhance their spiritual awareness by observing the tree of life on the bulletin board.

Special occasions and extra-curricular activities color life with excitement and happy memories. The promise of happiness at the end of the rainbow awaits those who say yes to life and give of their best. Opportunities to grow and develop are as broad as we dare to dream.

Freshman Orientation Day

King of the Jungle dramatized the comforting fact that even a courageous lion can be, like most of us, afraid of something sometime. Cheryl Rustowicz, Cathy Babula, Kathy Kacprowicz, (seated) Kathy Czech, Chris Nightengale, Pat Bochynski, and Anne Modzelewski enact a scene from the skit (by Pat Bochynski).

Everybody was in the mood for dancing. So were Janice Majchrzak, Linda Cyman, Lisa Kapturowski, and Sharon Zalewski.

The Cast: Row 1: Mary Tendorf, Karen Okonowski, Kathy Galenski, Cheryl Rustowicz, Patty Jarmusz. Row 2: Terry Zuzel, Lenore Wesolowski. Row 3: Pat Bochynski, Elaine Szczepanski, Michelle Janora, Lorraine Bajer, and Sue Dusza.

Pam Tullumello, Beth Ann Smith, and Rosemarie De Ross practice a dance step.

Tables were loaded with party snacks. (Front) Darlene Folga, Karen Przybyl, Kathy Phillips, Patricia Jarmusz, (back) Ann Marie D'Amico, and Pamela Buziak help themselves to some goodies.

Bike-Hike-a-thon

Waiting ... Louise Szeglowksi, Gail Urbanczyk, Susan Sturm, Elaine Eschberger and Terry Kolb.

S.M. Francella and Mrs. B Reczek make a final check.

A bird's eye view . . .

The juniors relax in woods during their lunch break.

Students find lunch in Losson Park something to laugh about.

"We're off to see the Santa, the wonderful Santa of Claus."

Christmas Season

Sympathetic Snow Woman (Sandy Decz) and Dorothy (Michelle Janora) listen to Cindy Cane (Christine Nightengale) bemoan the fact that she has no sweetness.

The sparkling eyes of Karen Waliszewski, Linda Cieslikowski, and Paula Laskowski reflect the Christmas Spirit.

Even in the Land of Claus the true spirit of Christmas can be found only at the crib of Bethlehem.

"Santa of Claus," the Senior Christmas production, reiterates the familiar theme of growing love and concern. Under the watchful eyes of Santa (Donna Kostrzycki) and his elves (Laurie Bajer, Katherine Czerniak, Sandy Dudziak, Natalie Schwec), Tinsel (Diane Derhak), and Dorothy (Michelle Janora), bid farewell to Star (Patricia Jarnot) and Cindy Cane (Christine Nightengale).

Hospitality Hour

Gracious hostesses Therese Szydowski and Christine Burke greet anxious guests. Imagine all the possible future Vilmarians!

The "Vilmarian," the school yearbook captivates the attention of the visitors. Sandy Szudzik and Michelle Kaminski are pleased by their reactions.

Mmm . . . scrumptious! The guests enjoy refreshments at the end of their lengthy tour.

Villa Maria comes alive on the screen as Margaret Jung presents slides of school activities.

What better way to introduce newcomers to the school's activities than by perusing the school paper. Even Barbara Modelski, Julie Schuler, Laurie Galantowicz, and Michelle Plewinski find something of interest.

Ring Day

Lynne Maniak receives school ring.

Anne Balcarczyk and Chris Nightengale pose for a picture after the ceremony.

Anticipating the great coming event, Juniors process to the Chapel.

Terry Szydlowski lights the candle during penance service.

Retreats

Sophomore guitarists, Joyce King, Sandra Manikowski and Eileen Smith await the next song of the Liturgy.

Seniors present the gifts of the Eucharist to the celebrant, Rev. Roy Herberger.

Rev. Gary Szczepankiewicz, sophomore retreat master, joyfully celebrates the Liturgy.

Senior-Junior

Banquet

Saying it with flowers, Bernadette Casper tells Christine Tawolski that she is special.

A gracious hostess, Theresa Szydowski welcomes the guests.

Ann Marie Nowak, Linda Russo, Cathy Babula, Ann Socha, Cindy Zak and Elaine Szczepanski share a rainbow of memories.

Janine La Belle seems more enthusiastic about her meal than either Mary Krzyzanowski or Bettina Dornig.

Emcees "Bunny" Maryann Burke and "Lion" Carol Cantie recall the many joys of the Seniors' years at Villa.

Elaine Eschberger confidently drives the school bus despite "those snowballs."

Achievers

Michelle Kaminski: Finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test; medal winner of The Bausch and Lomb Science Award and the winner of Century III Leadership Contest.

Participants in It's Academic: Joan Wojcik, Diane Borkowski and Anne Morey.

Runners-up in the Century III Leadership Contest: Elaine Szczepanski and Cathy Babula.

Winners of the Fire Prevention Contest: Diane Borkowski (second place) and Camille Zolkiewicz (first place).

Winners in the Voice of Democracy Speech Contest: Diane Borkowski (third place), Theresa Szydowski (second place), and Diane Derhak (first place).

Sports

As Sharon Zalewski gracefully completes her serve, Lynne Maniak prepares for a smashing return.

Badminton

Badminton Team: Bottom Row: Robin Zynda (21), Nancy Stencel (14), Kathy Decz (12), Elizabeth Kapturowski (11), Jennifer Podsiadlo (44), and Donna Szeluga (20). Top Row: Sharon Zalewski (10), Carol Murphy (15), Linda Landsman (30), Lynne Maniak (25), and Lynn Lewandowski (22).

Agility is the name of the game.

More valuable than the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow are the golden opportunities offered by the sports program to develop good sportsmanship and a healthy body. Cooperation, leadership, endurance and perseverance are as necessary to achieve a worthwhile goal as physical strength. Perhaps winning a gold medal in the Olympics is the big dream of some ambitious sports woman, but many smaller dreams, such as learning how to ski, or bowling on a championship team can be realized with desire and effort.

Gym Classes

Elizabeth Weltz shows Eltonya Rogers that there is a right way to serve a volleyball.

Up, up and away goes Diane Kurek while her friends, Jeanine Biniaszewski and Karen Januszkiewicz stand stupefied.

Swimming

Mrs. B. Reczek checks the chlorine content.

Diane Derhak and Gail Nowak fit themselves with flippers.

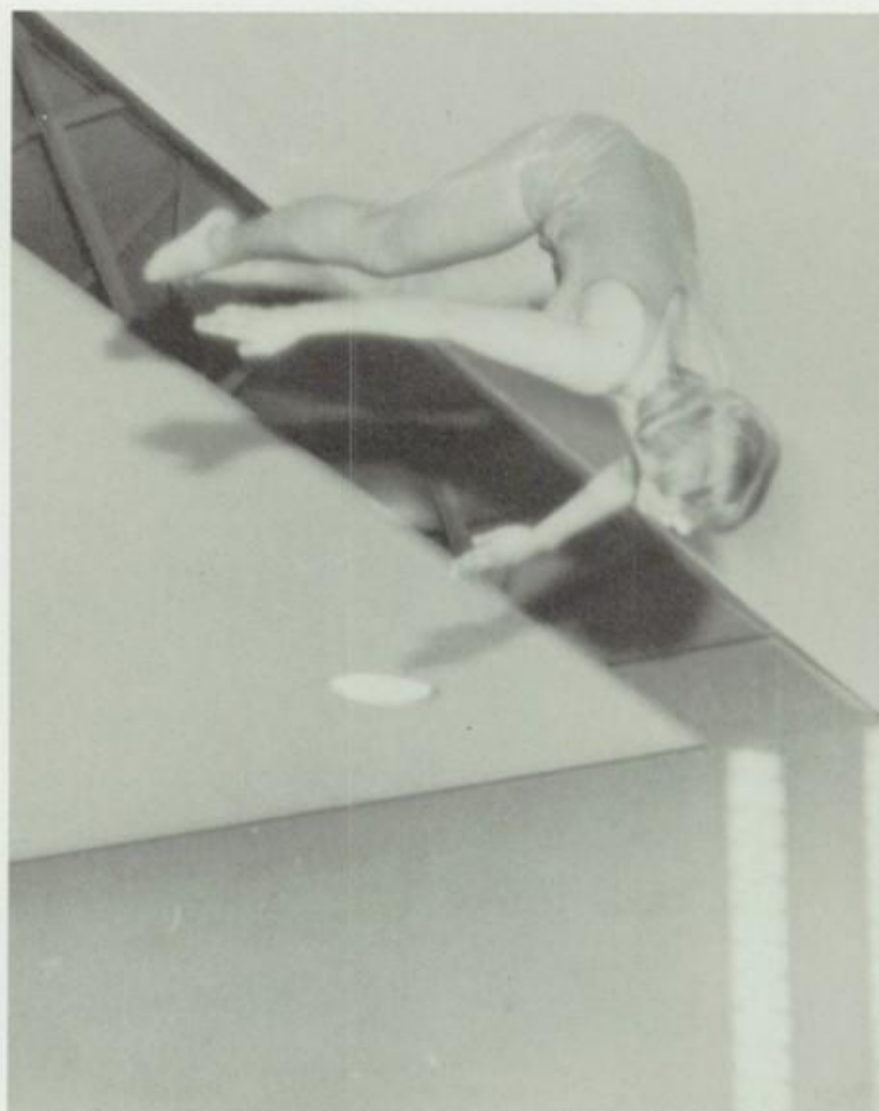

Everybody into the pooool!

Her blood pressure rises as Laurie Galantowicz daringly attempts a dive off the high board.

And there she goes! Look at that form.

(Left to Right) Michelle Kaminski, Elaine Szczepanski, Eileen Smith, Jean Suski, and Bonnie Rozewicz await the signal to race. Ready, set, GO!!!

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders: Bonnie Rozewicz, Julie Schuler, Cindy Zak, Susan Zakurzewski, Lynn Lewandowski, Elaine Szczepanski, Sharon Zalewski, Bonnie Lipiec, Camille Zolkiewicz, Jeanette Stachowski, and Laurie Galantowicz.

Basketball Team

Basketball Team: Kathleen Braniecki (20), Marie Szeglowski (40), Linda Landsman (30), Maryann Burke (31), Isabelle Nieduzak (35), Lisa Pruchniewski (24), Sharon Witek (11), Lynne Maniak (25), Nancy Stencel (14), Gail Nowak (34), Sophie Forman (22), Kathleen Decz (13), and Robin Zynda (21).

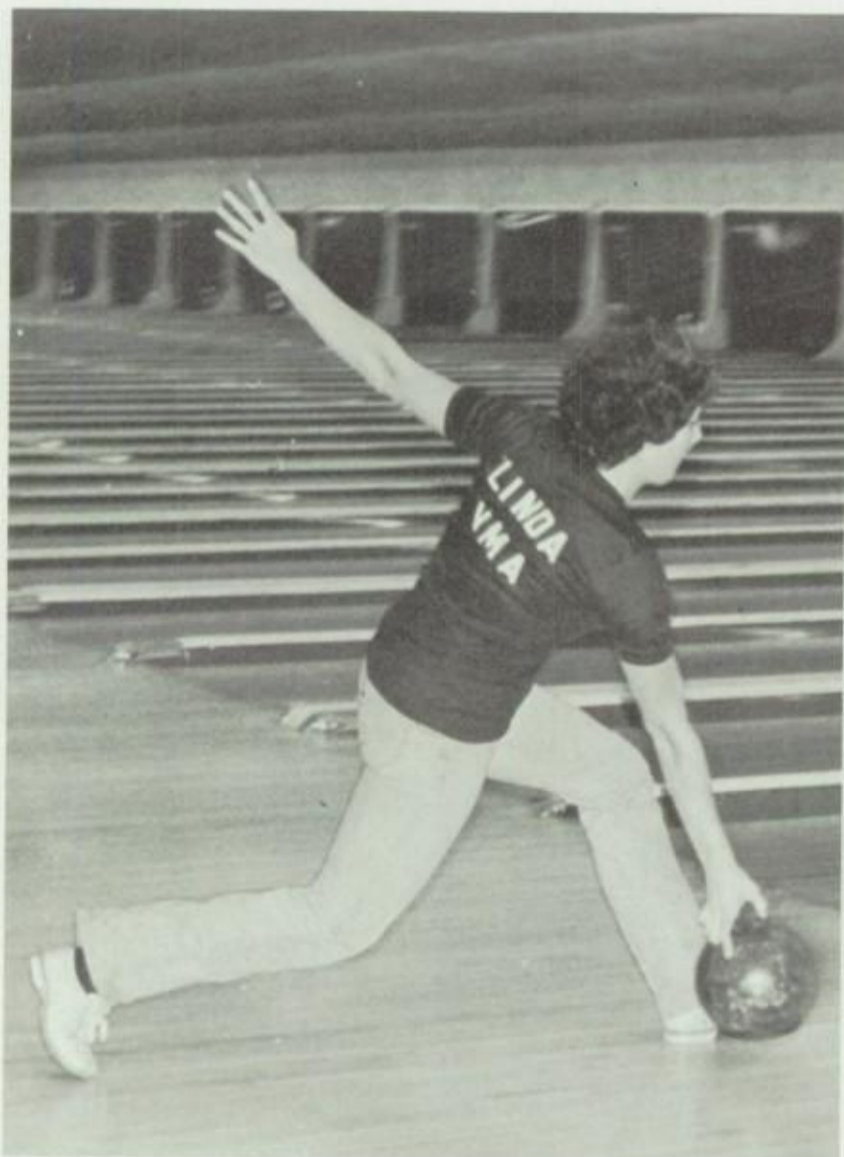

Half the challenge of learning to ski is knowing how to get up. Julie Schuler, Laurie Galantowicz, Mary Beth Lazarski and Mrs. Reczek hold back their chuckles as Jeanine Biniaszewski takes a spill.

Ski Club

Sportsminded Kathy Czerniak, Kathy Czerwec, Cheryl Rustowicz, Mrs. B. Reczek, Darlene Rustowicz, and Linda Cieslikowski observe Janice Wozniak and Lenore Anderson as they perform the daring feat of standing on their skis.

Perfect form demonstrated by Linda Landsman!

Bowling

Paula Walsh and Michelle Plewinski "strike" a pose.

Junior Varsity Bowling Team, Karen Przybyl, Brenda Stachura, Linda Landsman and Sharon Rutkowski win first place in our division. Karen Przybyl bowled the high three games.
